CRIME VICTIMS RIGHTS INFORMATION FOR VICTIMS OF SEXUAL ASSAULT

- You can have a sexual assault medical forensic examination and have evidence collected using a sexual assault evidence kit even if you do not want to participate in the criminal justice system or cooperate with law enforcement.
- You cannot be billed for the cost of administrating the sexual assault evidence kit. If you receive a bill for these services, contact the Michigan Crime Victim Services Commission at (517) 373-7373.
- You have the right to ask the investigating law enforcement agency for the contact information for the detective or investigating officer assigned to the case.
- You have the right to ask the current status of the case.
- You have the right to ask whether the case has been submitted to the prosecuting attorney for review.
- You have the right to ask whether the case has been closed and the documented reason for closure.

If you had a sexual assault evidence kit collected and released to law enforcement:

- You have a right to ask the investigating law enforcement agency when the sexual assault evidence kit was sent to a forensic laboratory for testing.
- You have the right to ask the investigating law enforcement agency whether a DNA profile was obtained from the sexual assault evidence kit
- You have the right to ask the investigating law enforcement agency whether a DNA profile was entered into CODIS.
- You have the right to ask the investigating law enforcement agency whether a DNA profile resulted in a CODIS hit.
- Your legal rights include the right to go to court and file a petition requesting a personal protection order (PPO)/Restraining Order to protect you from the perpetrator.
- The PPO could order the perpetrator not to have contact with you and include other specific conditions.
